

in collaboration with invites you to participate in our first international conference marking one year since the official launch of JReady.

The conference will bring together a vast range of experts from Israel and around the world, sharing their experience in building

“Resilience in Times of Crisis”

Thursday November 4th, 2021

Porter Auditorium, Tel Aviv University / simultaneously on zoom 10am – 1pm EST / 3pm – 6pm CET / 4pm-7pm Israel

Greetings from

Prof. Milette Shamir

Vice President, Tel Aviv University

Yaakov Hagoel

Chairman WZO and Interim Chair of The Jewish Agency for Israel

Haim Bibas

Chair, Israeli Federation of Local Authorities

Opening remarks

Ayelet Nahmias-Verbin

former MK, Chair of JReady and the Fund for Victims of Terror

Amira Ahronoviz

CEO and Director General, The Jewish Agency for Israel

With panels including

"Communities VS COVID"

hear from senior officials from the communities of Toronto, South Africa, Mexico and Sweden

"Building Resilience Within Global Jewish Communities"

with participating experts from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs,
The Jewish Agency, World Zionist Organization and Israel Trauma Coalition

And TED-style talks

"The Impact of COVID on Resilience"

Dr. Bruria Adini, Head of Department of Disaster Management, Tel Aviv University

"Technological Solutions to Building Resilience"

Michaela Bercu Zuckerman, Former Israeli Supermodel and Founder of Tribu App

Exclusive conversation with Nachman Shai, Minister of Diaspora Affairs:

"Rewriting the Narrative - The relationship between Israel and the Diaspora"

the event will be held in a hybrid format with the opportunity to join in-person or online.

Click here to register >

*In-person attendance will require presentation of a "tav yarok" – up-to date COVID vaccination or recovery certificate.

